FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Gilmore Jasion Mahler Announces New Partners, Key Promotions and New Staff Members

(December 19, 2018) - Gilmore Jasion Mahler, LTD (GJM), the area's largest locally owned public accounting firm, has announced some key promotions and new staff members that strengthen the Firm and its leadership team. The promotions are effective January 1, 2019.

Judy Anderson and Matt Cavanagh are promoted to partner. Anderson, a Toledo native and graduate of The University of Toledo has been with the firm for 11 years. She has over twenty years of experience in public accounting and in the healthcare industry. A member of Gilmore Jasion Mahler's healthcare and outsourced accounting group, she works with many of the firm's healthcare clients providing practice management and consulting services.

Cavanagh, a Bowling Green native and BGSU graduate, joined Gilmore Jasion Mahler in November of 2005. Also a member of the Firm's healthcare team, Matt's focus is healthcare services. His expertise is in ambulatory surgery centers, outsourced accounting, practice management and modeling.

"Judy and Matt are already valued members of our leadership team," says Gilmore Jasion Mahler Managing Partner Kevin Gilmore. "Their hard work and dedication have strengthened our healthcare specialty and the Firm as a whole. I'm thrilled to see them both reach partner level."

The Firm also announced some other key promotions. Partner Nikki Clement has been named managing partner of Gilmore Jasion Mahler's Findlay office and Mike Brough will lead growth efforts for the Findlay office. Steve Miller is being promoted to senior manager. Both Ryan Avery and Ryan Emerson are promoted to supervisor and Nick Jackson is promoted to senior associate.

Earlier in the year, Diane Stretten and Mary Jo Pitzen were promoted to senior manager. Andrea Jennex moved up to supervisor in the GJM Findlay office. Ben Lochbihler was promoted to manager and Corey Selhorst, Lauren Grana and Clay Barron were all promoted to senior associate.

The Firm also brought on well over a dozen new employees in 2018 to further strengthen GJM's administrative team and client service. They include Elijah Blackburn, Alyssa Essert, Alexandria Frances, Courtney Haas, Nicole Hartranft, Jennifer Henning, Dana Herr, Thomas Keyser, Jessica Knepper, Dylon Lause, Wendy Long, Tim Merkel, Madeline Mielcarek, Caleb Neeper, Joe Osentoski, Tina Rochowiak and Logan Sager.

"I couldn't be happier with the staff we have in place headed into 2019," says Gilmore. "When you have great people, great things happen. I'm excited to see what we can accomplish at a team."
